Richard Fairhurst has acquired the necessary points and has been promoted in Color Prints.

Louis Sapienza has also been promoted in Color Slides.

Doug Wise has earned a Bronze Certificate in Color Slides.

Lonnie Kishiyama won 1st place in the open category for a shot of the silos at Kinder Farm Park and 2nd place in the Nature category for a flower shot on the B & A trail in the Anne Arundel Dept. of Recreation and Parks Photo Contest

A Proposal was put forward by Richard Fairhurst for the establishment of guide lines to be used by judges during club slide and print competitions. As Dick reports, "Currently the selections and placement of slide and print images are solely a choice of the particular judge or judges and may reflect a judges particular interest. Judges, however cannot be held totally responsible for their subjectivity, since they receive virtually no communication or guidance from the club concerning what we expect of them." A committee was formed to study some guidelines for future judges. The members of the committee are: Dick Fairhurst, Diana Listmann and Kathy Funk.

Magnet the Polar Bear ACC has had the opportunity to see the Baltimore Zoo's popular polar bear, named Magnet, in some of our club's photo competition. Now the Baltimore Zoo's 800 lb. polar bear is a winner and a star by winning a first-place finish in a nationwide contest sponsored by Microsoft. Magnet will have a role in the Microsoft's new "Zoo Tycoon" game and an honorary position with the company. He also will receive $20,000 for his first place finish. The money will be used by the Zoo to build Magnet a new and larger place with two pools and more polar bears.

Richard Young

An amateur photographer went to a dinner party. He took some prints to show the hostess who exclaimed how beautiful they were saying, "These are great! You must have a very good camera." The photographer said nothing. When the party ended, the photographer told the hostess, "That was a wonderful meal. You must have some great pots!"

ACC Christmas Party

Close to 30 members attended the Christmas Party at Joyce and Jim Ritter's home. Joyce's home was very cheerfully decorated for the holidays with many lights and a large Christmas tree awaiting the gifts to be placed underneath. The guests arrived with the holiday spirit and ready for a joyful evening of food, drinks and good cheer. All faces had smiles while greeting or socializing with each other.

After eating too much good food and much more socializing, the time arrived for the big game. Tenseness filled the air. Who would be the lucky (?) recipient of the infamous phantom ACC Holiday gift? After much selecting of gifts from under the Christmas tree only about 5 gifts remained—all large and suspicious looking. The room became quiet. A member approached the tree with the confidence that only comes from knowing just 5 possibilities remain, and chose one of the large packages. There was a gasp in the group. After the first wrapping was removed...no solution yet! A few more wrappings were removed and....the prize!! The tenseness of the crowd suddenly evaporated. I'm sure there was a certain individual who observed all that happened, smiled and wished all the members of the ACC a Happy Holiday Season.
