How to Spot a Slide. A slide must be spotted correctly when entering it in a competition. The spot tells the projectionist the correct manner of projection for the slide. Please spot your slides in the following manner:

1. Holding the slide in your left hand, view the slide toward a light source as you would like it to show on the screen.
2. At the spot in the corner where your left thumb is holding the slide, place a spot large enough for the projectionist to see.
3. Make sure you have your name and title on the mount.

Promotion points in slides and print classes will be awarded as follows:

- |                 |          |

Field Trip of September 14

Elizabeth Gauld, Ted Golczewski, Claudette Golczewski, Richard Fairhurst, Jean Friday, Judy Atkins, Dolphy Glendinning and Louise Watts met at Severna Park Park and Ride and spent a beautiful Saturday photographing first at Ft. McHenry and later in Inner Harbor. There was lots of color at Ft McHenry with a volunteer group dressed in period costumes of the war that took place at this site in the early days of our country.

The group then proceeded to Inner Harbor by water taxi for more photos such as the Dragon boat races.

October 2 speakers Ted Golczewski and Mike Dulisse are long time members of the club and will present their extensive knowledge and expertise on digital printing.

October 30 Club Auction Now is the time to clean up and straighten out that dark room or digital corner and put it in a neat condition by getting rid of items you do now use anymore. This is the club's biggest money-raiser of the year and should be another big money-raiser this year. The club receives 50% of each sale and the seller the other 50%. Of course, items can be donated for the good of the club.

Attention: After October 30 only members having paid
