Program

On May 29th, we have rescheduled club member Elizabeth Gauld's talk on "Toning, Split Toning and Selective Toning – Why and How."

Contests

In May we will have our Club Events Contest. You may bring in one slide, one color print, one monochrome print, and one digital image from each club event you attended this year. Club events include any field trip, the Christmas party, and last year's club banquet. We also allow a number of local events to count for the club events contests including Fourth of July fireworks shot anywhere in the local MD/D.C. area; and the Maryland Renaissance Festival. Best in show wins a free 2013-2014 club membership.

In May we also held our End of Year Competition. For the end of year competition we gathered all of the winning 1st through 4th place images from the 2012-2013 club year and held a competition off-site. We had a panel of three judges from the Baltimore Camera Club select the best novice and color, monochrome, slides, and digital images for the year including the best image of the year.

The results of the end of year contest will be presented at the end of year banquet on May 22nd. There will be plaques for the 1st place winners, nice ribbons for 2nd-4th, and a trophy for best image of the year. You can find the slide show from last year's banquet here.

End of Year Club Banquet

Our end of year club banquet will be on May 22nd at the Inn at Pirates Cove. This is where we present our best of the best images for the year and give awards to the best monochrome print, digital, color print, and slide photographers for the year as well as present the results of the end of year competition. This is also the last chance to get together and socialize before our summer break.

"The Voices of Stones: On Loss and Hope"

Dear Friends,

I am please to announce that my second book, "The Wisdom of Stones: On Loss and Hope" has arrived! I am very pleased with how it turned out and I'm eager for the chance to share it with others.

Like The Wisdom of Stones, it is a book of text and matched photographs but with a focus and format that is a bit different. The book draws heavily on my many years of work with disasters and trauma and reflection on those experiences while exploring the beaches of Campobello Island in Canada.

This note is to let you know that I just received copies and I would be glad to sign/inscribe copies if you would like. In addition, it will be officially released and available through the usual booksellers (e.g., Barnes & Noble, Amazon, etc.) on June 1.

For those of you in the Washington, Baltimore, Annapolis area, there will be a release/signing event from 1:00-3:00 PM on Saturday, May 11 at the Annapolis Book Store, 35 Maryland Ave., Annapolis, MD (410-289-2339).

Thank you for your support and encouragement in these ventures. I hope you enjoy this latest book.

Club Information

Meeting Nights

The Arundel Camera Club meets every Wednesday evening when school is in session and weather permitting. We only meet if the School is open. Check for school closings at the following link <http://www.aacps.org/>.

We meet at 7:30 p.m. and usually end before 10:00 p.m. Meetings are open to the public, but only dues paying members may enter competitions.

Meetings alternate with programs of informative speakers and photographic competitions. The purpose of programs are to bring in highly talented photographers to show us how to improve our photography.

Competitions give us a chance to show off our work and to get constructive critiques from our judges. Ribbons are awarded for first through fourth place and honorable mention. We have competitions for slides, color prints, monochrome prints, and digital images. Competitions are held for both novice and unlimited club members. Awards are awarded at the end of year banquet.

The club also has monthly photographic field trips to locations of interest. This is a chance to go out and practice what we learned during programs, a time to socialize with other club members, and a chance to do a little photographic exploration.
