Margaret Holly Bevan

Holly was born March 20, 1916.

In 1942, she signed up to join the U.S. Navy WAVES (Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service). Bevan recalled her first night in the Navy. “There were eight women in the room and four of them were named Margaret,” she said. The WAVES nicknamed her Holly.

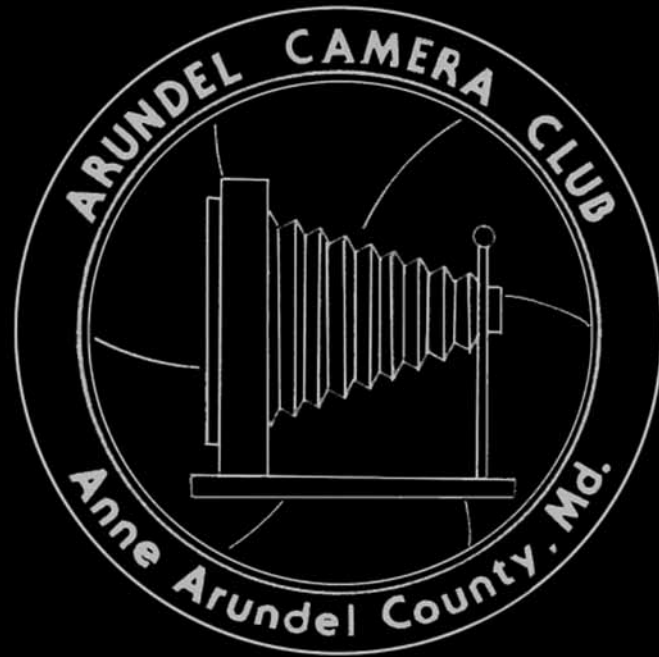

She met her husband Wilbur Bevan at a USO dance when they were both stationed in Corpus Christi, Texas. The couple got married Oct. 27, 1944.

Bevan and her husband shared a love of photography; both belonged to the Arundel Camera Club.

Holly earned a Bachelor of Arts in journalism in 1951. Bevan aspired to be a writer – she wrote a column for her high school newspaper, and used her writing skills to publicize and write newsletters for the clubs she belongs to. She still coordinates publicity for the Arundel Camera Club.

Bevan earned her teaching certificate at the University of Maryland and a Masters degree in education from Johns Hopkins.

Holly turned 101 in March.
